Central Funfair

Bella went to the Central Funfair with her cousins. They were so thrilled. First of all, they joined the game called 'Into the Milk Bottle'. In this game, people have to throw a ball into the milk bottle to win a prize. When Bella and her cousins were trying to throw the balls, the staff cheered them on. "Try your best! Good luck!" she encouraged them kindly.

Gary went first, but he lost the game, and yelled, "Ah! Why it fell down? Why it happened to me?" The staff comforted him and said, "Never mind, try again! You can do it!"

Jason played the game next and won. He was as happy as Larry. "Yes! I did it!" he said happily. He got a little pink teddy bear as a prize.

Bella tried the game last. She aimed at the bottle and the ball flew into the bottle. "Oh Yes! I won!" She was surprised that the ball went into the bottle exactly.

"Well done!" said the staff and she gave Bella a yellow teddy bear as the prize. Then, they went to Starbucks to have some drinks and sandwiches for a rest.

What a great day!

Bella was the last one to play the game. She aimed the ball at the milk bottle with an eye shut. Luckily, she won the game. "Wow! Bingo!" she shouted. She felt surprised, fortunate and over-thrilled.

"Congrats! Hope you'd enjoyed our game!" the staff said when Bella won. Bella got a yellow teddy bear as her final prize. After the game, they went to other booth games and went on a roller coaster. They took photos around. They went to Starbucks to have a cup of coffee. They said, "Today is fun!" What an exciting day!

At the beginning, Gary went first, but he lost the game. He felt so unhappy and hopeless so he cried loudly. "Oh...Boohoo!" The staff comforted him and said, "Never mind. Never give up! Let's try once more!"

Next, Jason played the game. Luckily, he threw the ball into the milk bottle successfully, so he won the prize. The teddy bear was brown and red. He felt thrilled and overjoyed.

Finally, Bella aimed the ball at the milk bottle, suddenly a man walked past her and pushed her carelessly but luckily, the ball had already gone into the milk bottle!

“Congratulations! You are just too lucky!” the staff said when Bella won. Bella got a teddy bear which was black and white. Afterwards, they went to play other games and tried the teacup ride. They took many beautiful photos around. Finally, they felt hungry so they went to Starbucks to have a drink. They felt as happy as Larry on that day.

Central Funfair

Last week, Bella visited the Central Funfair with her cousins, Gary and Jason because they got high marks in exam. They were excited about it.

When they were walking around the funfair, Gary saw a game which attracted him a lot. It was called 'Into the Milk Bottle'. In the game, they had to throw the ball into the bottle and win a prize. The staff encouraged them and said, "Good luck and try your best!"

Gary was thrilled and went first. He threw out a ball powerfully but the ball flew past the milk bottle, the ball did not hit the milk bottle at all! "Oh no! I failed." Gary was downhearted. "Never mind." the staff tried to cheer him up.

Next, it was Jason's turn. Jason had a try and he won! "I can't believe my eyes!" Jason was hyper, Gary was happy for him. "Wow, you won! Here is your prize!" the staff gave Jason a fuzzy brown teddy bear.

Finally, it was Bella's turn. She looked confident and was likely to win. She aimed the ball at the milk bottle. Later on, there was a big smile on her face. She won! She was overjoyed.

At last, Jason and Bella both got teddy bears but poor Gary did not have any, sadness was on his face. Bella didn't want anyone sad so she gave her teddy to Gary. Gary thanked Bella very much. Then, everyone was happy. They finally tried different kinds of booth games. They had an amazing day!

Last week, Bella visited the Central Funfair with her cousins, Sam and John because it was Bella's birthday. They went to the funfair to celebrate her birthday. They were so thrilled that they could barely walk straight!

Then, they went to a game called Into the Milk Bottle. The staff member there told them how to play. "Good luck!" she said. "Who would like to go first?" the staff member asked.

John said he wanted to go first. He picked up a ball and threw it at the milk bottle, trying to win a teddy bear as his prize. However, he lost. John wailed, "I want to have a teddy bear!" The staff said, "It's okay. Do you want to try again?" John shook his head. He was downhearted and sad.

Next, it was Gary's turn. "Good luck, little boy! Three, two, one. Go!" Sam got ready, then he threw his ball. The ball went into the milk bottle in the middle. "Woohoo! I won the prize! Yay!" cheered Sam. He was extremely happy. The staff clapped for Sam. Sam got a big teddy.

This time, it was Bella's turn. She aimed at the milk bottle and threw the ball. The ball went inside the milk bottle! Bella won! "Wow! You won! Congratulations! You won a prize!" exclaimed the staff. Bella got a cute ice-cream squishie. "Aww! It's cute!" Bella was as happy as Larry.

Then they went to try out the roller coaster. However, Sam and John were not tall enough, so Bella rode it herself.

After that, they went to Starbucks to buy some hot chocolate to drink. How wonderful and fun the day was!

Then, Jason tried the game. Luckily, he won the game. "Yes!" he yelled excitedly. He was overjoyed. The staff gave him a teddy bear which was brown and big.

Bella tried the game last. She tried to aim the ball at the bottle with an eye closed.

Then she threw the ball into the milk bottle and won. "Wow, I did it!" she shouted. She was satisfied.

"Congratulations!" said the staff. Bella got a red teddy bear but she gave it to Gary. "It is yours now!" said Bella.

Gary smiled. And then, they went to try other booth games.

"It is a wonderful day!" he thought.

Last week, Bella visited the Central Funfair with her cousins, Gary and Jason to celebrate Bella's birthday. They were so thrilled in the morning.

Fifteen minutes later, they wanted to play some games and they found the game called 'Into the Milk Bottle'. The staff said, "Throw a ball into the milk bottle and win the gift. Want to play?" Gary replied, "Yes." "Good luck! You guys will have three balls." said the staff.

Later, Gary picked up a ball and threw it into the bottle, but he lost. "Oh...Boohoo!" he wailed. "Never mind. Try it one more time." said the staff.

The next person who played the game was Jason. He picked up a ball and threw it into the bottle. He won! It was inside the bottle!

He did it! “Yeah!” he yelled. The staff gave him a brown teddy bear.

After that, Bella wanted to try the game. She aimed the ball at the milk bottle with an eye closed so that she could win it easier. She really threw it into the bottle! “Wow. Bingo!” she exclaimed. She felt overjoyed. She got a teddy bear, too.

Finally, they felt hungry so they went to Starbucks to have coffee with whipped cream and some cakes. Then, they went on the roller coaster. Finally, they went home.

Last week, Bella and her cousins (Gary and Jason) visited the Central Funfair to celebrate Jason's birthday. They were thrilled the night before.

The next day, they already arrived at the funfair in the morning. They found a stall called 'Into the Milk Bottle'. The staff there told them to throw a ball into a milk bottle and win a special prize.

Jason said, "I want to go first!" But sadly, he failed. "Waaaa!" he shouted and wailed, but the staff told him to never mind it and try it again.

Next, it was Gary's turn. He was super excited to win the prize. Then, he threw a ball, the ball got into the bottle! "Woohooo!" he shouted loudly.

Bella and Jason were overjoyed, and the staff said, "Congratulations! Here, this is your prize- an orange teddy bear." They were as happy as Larry.

A few minutes later, Bella tried the game as well. She aimed the ball with one eye closed, then she threw it into the bottle. She won! "Oh Yes!" she exclaimed. Everyone was clapping for her success. She also won a teddy bear. They were extremely satisfied.

At around four o'clock, they went to the haunted house and took a lot of photos in there. After that, they went to a restaurant to have afternoon tea. They were starving, so Bella ordered a lot of food. After eating, Jason said, "Wow!

The food here is so appetizing. I love this funfair! There are a lot of booth games to play and the food is awesome!" Thirty minutes later, they left the funfair and they were extremely happy.

My Dream School

My dream school will be a natural school near the beach. It looks like a glasshouse with very clear tempered glass.

We can learn gardening, cooking and building tree houses for us to play in. Every student loves playing there. We will get some paints to learn Chemistry, too. Pupils love studying in class, because they can make their life more promising.

After lunch, students can go to the cooking room to bake cakes and cookies. There are facilities outside our glasshouse. There is a lab for us to work in. We can also swim near the beach. After swimming, we can go to the sports centre next to our school.

There are monthly events to build students' teamwork, cooking skills and confidence. Students can join cooking contest and funfair. They can have fun during the activities.

At last, there are some helpful and caring teachers in my dream school, they teach us well and some nice classmates are there to play with us. I will love my dream school very much!

My Dream School

My dream school will be a natural school at the countryside. It looks like a big glasshouse. Every student enjoys the school life there. I can study some interesting subjects such as cooking, gardening and making music with leaves and vegetables or some other different things!

In this school, students can use facilities such as swimming pool and gymnasium. Pupils like to use these facilities because it can be helpful to train them to be healthy and strong. After school, they can go to the library to read lots of books.

Every Saturday, there will be some events or activities such as Food Festival, Funfair and Sports Day. At the Food Festival, pupils can try food from other countries. At Funfair, pupils can win the prizes. On Sports Day, pupils can join running with teachers and other classmates. If pupils finish the race first, they can win a big prize. I think the students will enjoy the activities and events so much!

Finally, there are nice and caring teachers in my dream school. Also, the helpful and friendly artificial intelligence (AI) robots are there to help the students in class. I can't wait to go to my dream school!

My dream school will be a manmade school on Mars . It looks like a new but small strange spaceship. Every student loves this school because there are many spaces to play inside.

We can learn different subjects such as flying archery, history, science, alien languages, dancing, cooking, gaming, painting and running. Students will love studying in these classes a lot.

In my dream school, there are facilities like art room, sports centre, archery room, science room and dancing room. Students can enjoy their free time in these places.

On Aliens Month, students will have a Pokemon Let's Go Day and Aliens Flying Competition. Pupils can learn some gaming skills and character names from Pokemon Let's Go Day. They can also learn aliens flying skills from Aliens Flying Competition. They must feel very happy on these days!

At last, there are nice and funny teachers in my dream school. The teachers are kind and caring, classmates are helpful, generous and careful.
Besides, alien robot helpers are there to help my classmates and teachers in different classes. I can't wait for my dream school! I want to fly to Mars to build this school and after that, there will be so many pupils in my dream school! I hope they like to study there and be happy every day.

My dream school will be a special one located at the middle of the sea. It looks like a giant ship, which is technical and well-equipped. Every student would be satisfied with their school life there.

In my dream school, students can study many kinds of interesting but useful subjects like gaming, gardening, fishing and cooking. These subjects make our life more meaningful.

In the school, there are many facilities such as huge library about 13 metres tall, greenhouse for planting different kinds of plants and theatre with giant screens. Students would love them.

There are many special events in my dream school, like Cooking Competition, the winner's dish will be provided in school canteen. And at the Farming Festival, students can plant random seeds and see what it is when it grows up.

Finally, there are nice people in the school. There are some friendly classmates and considerate teachers that can help students with problems in studying. Also, robotic assistants and the use of artificial intelligence will keep students safe from danger. I wish I could study in my dream school.

A Strange Dream

When I opened my eyes, I found myself in a huge jungle. Everywhere was dark and it was a bit eerily quiet. I saw different creatures like snakes, crocodiles, bats and wild bears. They looked fierce and cunning. My heart was in my mouth. I tried to escape and ran as fast as a cheetah.

I looked around and tried to find a way out.

Suddenly, a big stunning parrot flew out from a big and flourish tree.

This parrot was blue and yellow in colours. It was very beautiful and I couldn't stop chasing after it. Suddenly, I got an idea, "Maybe it will save me by leading me to leave this scary forest!"

Moments later, I followed the parrot to escape this jungle. I had a sign of relief because I might find my way back home. Suddenly, I heard

"Ring! Ring!" I opened my eyes and looked at the alarm clock. It was time to wake up! What an unforgettable dream! I will write it down in my diary.

When I opened my eyes, I found myself in a huge jungle.

It was midnight. It was overcast and dark. I had a bad feeling at that moment. When I just stepped into the jungle, it was eerily quiet and dank. I saw many scary creatures like a black cat, a fierce snake and some cunning alligators. My heart was beating even faster and faster! I was afraid of becoming their dinner! I tried to escape and ran away as fast as a racing car.

When I was in a rush, I suddenly saw a big colourful parrot flying in

In the sky. I had a feeling that it would bring me good luck so I decided to follow it, at least it was not dangerous.

Soon, I found a wonderful place, it was a brighter and wider forest. There was no more frightening animals. I was glad I had followed the parrot. Then, I saw a cozy bed, I did not know the reason why it was there. But I was running out of energy, I decided to take a rest in it.

Then, I found myself in my bedroom, I was still in that cozy bed, just like nothing had happened. I was proud that I had escaped from the nightmare. I had a strangely scary dream! But through this dream, I learned to always remember the gratitude and kindness from others and repay them.

When I opened my eyes, I found myself in a large jungle. It was almost midnight. It was overcast and dank. When I entered the jungle, it was strangely quiet. Suddenly, I saw a lot of animals such as alligators swimming in the water and snakes climbing on the tree. I felt scared and nervous. So, I tried to escape and run as fast as I could.

Suddenly, I saw a big stunning parrot when I was finding a way to go home. I guessed it would save and help me go home. So, I tried to run behind it.

A few minutes later, the parrot landed on a tree in a new place. The place was wider and peaceful, in a warm weather with some sunlight. In the middle of that garden, there was a tall tree, the parrot was standing on it and looking at me.

Suddenly, a wooden door appeared in the garden. When I opened it, there was some light inside. I got inside the door. I quickly felt

A Visit to a Centre for the Elderly

The wind was hitting Sally's face on her way to Lucky Day Care Centre with a number of classmates last Saturday.

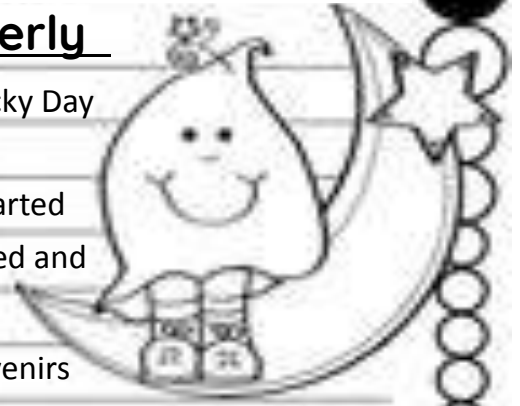

At first, they introduced themselves. Next, they started to sing some old songs. The elderly applauded. They loved and enjoyed the songs very much. They felt pleased.

After singing, Sally and Tom distributed some souvenirs to the elderly. "Thank you! The towels and water bottles are very useful!" said the elderly. Sally and Tom were glad when they heard that.

After a while, it was the chatting time. Tom shared his school and daily life with an old man. And the old man talked about some past events and history which Tom had never learned at school. Sally chatted with an old woman but the old woman didn't talk a lot. "I am dizzy. Can you call a nurse?" asked the old woman. Sally was nervous and her face turned as pale as a sheet.

Finally, a nurse came and took care of the old woman. A few hours later, the old woman felt much better after taking some pills. Sally was relieved. This is a meaningful day for Sally. She learned a lot of new things and would not forget it.

They felt so excited before they visited the elderly centre.

First of all, Sally and her classmates introduced themselves to the elderly. Then, they sang a few old Mandarin songs that the elderly were interested in. The elderly applauded loudly when they were listening to the songs. "They are fantastic songs!" the elderly said. They were thrilled.

Second, Sally and Peter distributed different presents such as masks, snacks, towels and bottles. The elderly were terrific. They said, "Thank you. They're so useful." They felt so happy and surprised.

After a while, an old man talked about his old life to Peter but suddenly, the old lady talking to Sally got a headache and felt so dizzy so Sally was so worried about her. Her face turned as pale as a sheet. Her blood also ran cold and she yelled, "Can you get me a nurse, please?"

Finally, an ambulance came and the old woman was sent to Queen Mary Hospital. Five minutes later, the old woman arrived there. Then, a doctor checked her condition and he said, "She just got a headache." Two hours later, the woman could leave the hospital herself. When Sally heard the old woman was safe, she felt relieved and wound down.

A Visit to a Centre for the Elderly

On a sunny Saturday, Sally and her classmates could feel some wind blowing on the street on their way to Sky Elderly Centre.

When they arrived at Sky Elderly Centre, they introduced themselves, "Hello, my name is Sally. We come from Happy Primary School." After that, they sang an old Chinese song that was the elderly's most favourite song! After the show, the elderly clapped their hands and said, "You sang so great!"

Next, they distributed some gifts prepared to the elderly. They gave out some water bottles with animal icons on it and towels. The elderly felt grateful and surprised to get the gifts. "Thank you, kids!" one of the elderly said.

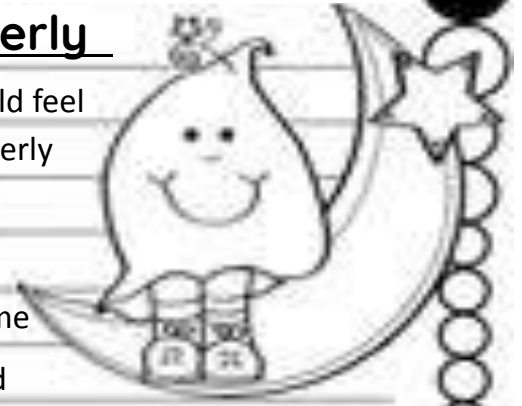

Then, the children chatted with the elderly. John was talking with an old man. The old man talked about the things happened in the past.

"Fifty years ago, I was a policeman!" he said. John listened to him seriously and also talked about his school and daily life.

Suddenly, an old woman felt cold and her head felt unwell.

Sally's blood ran cold. "Can someone help?" she shouted nervously.

When Sally was calling for help, John came and dialled 999. A few minutes later, an ambulance came, a nurse came out and took the old woman onto the ambulance. After the doctor treated the old woman, she felt better. This was an unforgettable and valuable day. Sally learnt a lot.

A Visit to a Centre for the Elderly

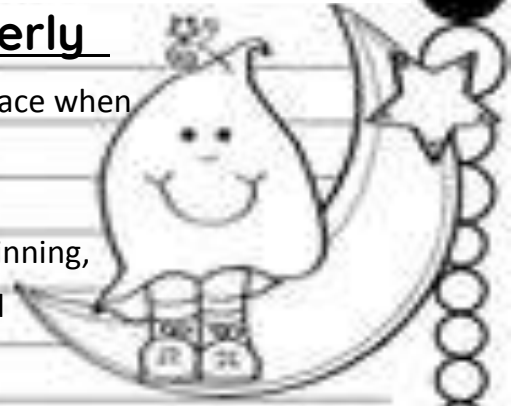

"Whoosh, whoosh" the breeze was hitting Sally's face when she was going to Peaceful Elderly Centre with several classmates last Saturday.

After they arrived at the elderly centre, at the beginning, they introduced themselves and started to sing some old Chinese songs. The elderly clapped when the students finished the songs. They were pleased.

After that, Sally and her friend, Alex, decided to distribute some souvenirs to the elderly. They felt grateful and surprised when they received some towels and bottles. They said, "Thank you, Sally and Alex! These are useful to us!"

After a while, an old man and Alex started to chat. The old man asked, "Do you know that the dinosaurs were killed by meteors?" Alex replied, "I didn't know that. Thanks for telling me this!" And, Alex told the old man about his school life. On the other side, an old woman got a headache and felt dizzy. Sally was very worried about the old woman, her blood ran cold. The old woman whispered to Sally, "Could you call a nurse? Thank you." Sally found a nurse and led her to the old woman immediately.

At last, the nurse called the ambulance and it arrived 15 minutes later. Two paramedics came out of the ambulance and took the old woman to the hospital. 3 hours later, the old woman felt normal after taking some pills. Sally felt relieved when the old woman felt better. This is a memorable experience to Sally because she learned she should be nice to the elderly.

Lesson 5

Someone I admire

Everyone has his own
greatest person on his mind.

Mother Teresa is my admirable person. She was an Indian nun. She was dedicated and generous. She was selfless. She had helped a lot of people in the world.

Mother Teresa had taught in a girls' school for 15 years in her life. She started her mission at 36, she kept going on streets to help and feed the underprivileged people. This is very meaningful!

Also, she devoted her life to God. She helped people who were unlucky, sick or could not do for themselves. She even starved herself when feeding the hungry people. Since then, she started a school to get some medical training to cure the sick people. She established the Missionaries of Charity, working with over 4000 nuns in the world. They were nice things to do!

Even if you are rich, you can't buy love with it. I learned that money isn't everything, and not everything can be bought with it, while love sometimes may change our destiny.

At last, we should show empathy, sacrifice what we have, just give it out to the needy. We should share love with the people who need help. We can spend more time with them and help them as much as we can!

My admirable person is Kouki. He is a Youtuber from Taiwan. He is so funny and selfless. He is famous for playing Minecraft excellently.

In his life, he has run 50 burger shops in Taiwan. He sells different special burgers such as curry beef burger, onion egg burger and burgers of other different flavours.

Additionally, he has got the Best Video Game Video Contest Award of the Year and the Best Video Game Creator of the Year Award in 2019. And, he wrote his new book called "A Shen takes you into the golden palace of Youtube video and audio network celebrity" in 2021.

After seeing how he plays Minecraft, I learnt some minecraft skills and know how to play it better.

I wish I could be a special Youtuber like Kouki.

Someone I admire

Everyone has his own
greatest person on his mind.

I always see Mother Teresa to be my admirable person. She was an Indian nun. She was so dedicated and generous. She was selfless because she had helped great amount of people in the world.

Mother Teresa had taught in a girls' school for 15 years. At 36, she started her mission, which was going on streets to help and take care of the underprivileged and needy people.

Apart from this, her deeds are very meaningful. First, she helped those who were unlucky, sick and could not do for themselves. She starved herself when feeding those hungry people. After that, she started a school to get some medical training to cure the sick people. Finally, she established Missionaries of Charity, working with over 4000 nuns in the world. She was finally awarded Nobel Peace Prize. She is a unique nun!

From the legend of Mother Teresa, I have learnt that even with no money, love can change the lives of many.

In future, I should show empathy, sacrifice what I have, give and love those needy people.

The person I admire is my brother, Gavin Lee, He is very dedicated, kind and outstanding.

When my brother was in kindergarten, he just performed normally in his studies, his grades were not that great. Therefore, he started to pay more attention in class. Then, he became smarter and performs well now.

Queen's College is my brother's favourite secondary school in Hong Kong. He kept doing a lot of practice when he was in primary school. Although he was very tired of studying, he still kept going ahead. At last, he could enter Queen's College.

Also, he loves to help people. When he sees people in need, he would help them. And, he always donates money to the impoverished people. I learnt that helping others is the foundation of happiness.

I remember my brother told me that things are more difficult to study in secondary school. So, I should get enough preparation for my secondary life.

Someone I admire

Everyone has his own
greatest person on his mind.

The person I admire is Taylor Alison Swift from America, the female singer who has dedicated a lot for music and there is a story behind every song. I admire her because she is a creative singer. Her songs are very good and moving. She's also kind and helpful.

"Love Story" was composed by Taylor Swift. She fell in love with a boy but her father didn't agree and she could only end the relationship. She hoped the guy would ask her, "Will you marry me?" She only spent twenty minutes on writing this song.

The income of the MV of her most famous song, "Ronan" was donated to African Parks Foundation of America. Swift is a very kind person. She also does a lot of work for charity. It is so meaningful.

I learn that money is not the most important in our lives, the most important is to warm others' hearts. No matter how much money you donate, it can help the poor and needy people.

I want to be a doctor in future because doctor can save lives and I really want to take care of and help those sick and needy people. Saving lives is very meaningful!

Someone I admire

Everyone has his own greatest person on his mind.

The person I admire is a Youtuber called cKev. He makes funny videos about a game called Roblox. He is a famous and amusing person. He is an American Youtuber with about 449,000 subscribers.

cKev Channel was created on 12 December 2020. His subscriber count is 449,000 now, his video total view rate is 59.2 million (59, 242, 015).

Apart from that, he has some achievements, such as getting the Silver award on Youtube, it is only for the youtubers reached 100, 000 subscribers. And, he got the star code in the game Roblox. To get this, one needs at least 100, 000 people to know his game and the people will use the star code to support him. It is hard and rare to be able to achieve this in the game.

From his videos, I learned different gaming skills. I also learned a lot of things to do in the game. It teaches me playing games is not only for fun, it's also only for learning about the game itself. We can also make videos for people to watch for fun. It also teaches me the commands about making a game.

After watching cKev's videos, it makes me thinking of being a Youtuber, people can have fun and learn things from me. My goal is to reach 10 million subscribers and get the Diamond award on Youtube.

My Most Memorable Day

The most memorable day in my life was TWGHs Joint Primary Schools Graduation Ceremony, which was held by a well-known (= very famous) organization, TWGHs.

The ceremony took 3 hours on 30 June 2022 to celebrate our graduation . The opening ceremony started at 12p.m. at Queen Elizabeth Stadium. I joined the graduation with my classmates and a few teachers. A host and some staff from TWGHs came. I was so thrilled and hyper.

The host opened the event with some guests. After the ceremony, we put on our graduation gowns. The host introduced the graduation ceremony procedures and reminded us not to break the rules.

Suddenly, Ding Cheng Xin popped up and greeted us, "Good morning, ladies and gentlemen, graduates. Welcome to the TWGHs Joint Primary Schools Graduation Ceremony today! The ceremony starts now.” Our faces became as red as tomatoes because we saw our idol! He sang a song and went back to his seat.

After the song, the award-giving ceremony started, the awardees went on the stage to get the prizes and took photos.
We clapped happily.

At last, I took a few photos with my idol. What an unforgettable day!

My Most Memorable Day

My most memorable event was an English spelling competition, which was held by a renowned international organization, British Council.

I remembered it happened 3 years ago, I engaged in the competition with 11 competitors. I went to a big museum in Tin Hau. I was very excited and satisfied but I actually didn't prepare anything.

The host came out and he explained the exam rules. I saw lots of judges sitting down the stage. I was stressed when I was sitting on the stage. Then, the judges started to call different competitors to spell the words they uttered. Then, it was my turn.

Unexpectedly, one of the judges said a word 'bench'. I was extremely jittery since I had never heard this word before. I lost the competition! I felt upset and sad. When I got fouled, I was crying down the stage.

This was my most memorable day and I knew the importance of preparation and practice.

My Most Memorable Day

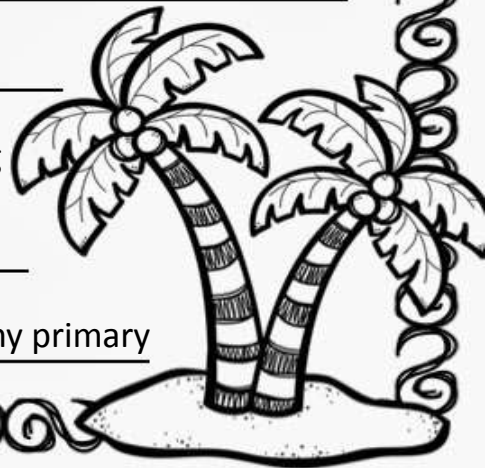

The most memorable event in my life so far was my P6 Graduation Ceremony, which was held by TWGHs.

I remembered it took 2 hours for the rehearsals and 1.5 hours for the official ceremony. My classmates and a couple of teachers engaged in it with me. A host and some staff from TWGHs came. I was so curious and thrilled because it was the first time I'd joined such ceremony.

The host opened the event with over 1000 guests, parents, teachers and students. Then, we listened to several guests giving speech. Then, my friends Leo, Ryan and I went onto the stage to get our prizes. We were excited.

After that, the TWGHs choir gave us a nice performance. They sang very well. We saw a kung fu performance, too! All of us were hyper.

This meaningful event told me I will leave my primary school soon. Therefore, I will treasure my friendship with my classmates here.

The End
